

MISS HART WEDS MR. ANDERSON

Miss Elizabeth Hart and Mr. Judson McDaniel Anderson United in Marriage.

Wednesday afternoon at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hart, on North Maysville street, in the presence of the immediate families and a few chosen friends Miss Elizabeth Hart became the bride of Mr. Judson McDaniel Anderson.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Madison A. Hart, of Columbia, Mo., an uncle of the bride. Just before the ceremony Miss Lillian Rose Veach, of Louisville, sang "Oh, Promise Me." Miss Veach has an extremely sweet voice and on this occasion it was unusually clear and sweet. Miss Veach also played the wedding march. There were no attendants.

The bride carried a bouquet of roses and her wedding attire was of broadcloth. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for a wedding trip through the east, and upon their return will make their home with the groom's father, Mr. S. English Anderson.

Miss Hart is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Hart and the idol of the family. Her many accomplishments and splendid qualities have made for her a host of admiring and loving friends.

Mr. Anderson is a son of Mr. S. English Anderson and a fine young man of high moral character, splendid business faculties and is sure to be successful in his chosen profession of farming and stock raising in which he has embarked with his father.

That their pathway through life may always be lighted by the sunshine of happiness and love and that prosperity may always be theirs is the wish of the Advocate.

DIES AT LEXINGTON

Mr. John H. Hutsell, aged 71, died at St. Joseph's Hospital Sunday on the golden anniversary of his wedding. Mr. and Mrs. Hutsell have lived in Lexington many years and at one time he was the owner of Hutsell's Mills but retired from business several years ago. His wife is a sister of Capt. J. T. Williams, of Spring Station. Mr. Hutsell also had relatives in this county.

SPLENDID OLD GENTLEMAN

Passed Away Thursday Evening While Surrounded by Sorrowing Family.

Peter Kelly died at his home on the Winchester pike Thursday at midnight after a long illness of a complication of diseases. He was a native of Ireland and emigrated to this country when sixteen years old, locating in Fleming county, where he engaged in turnpike work. Later he took charge of a tollgate in the county, and after many years service in that capacity moved to this county, where he managed a tollgate on the Maysville turnpike. In early manhood Mr. Kelly married Miss Mary Howard, a sister of Mike Howard and Mrs. W. H. Canan, of this county. She survives him. Mr. Kelly was 76 years of age and was one of the best known and most highly respected citizens of the county.

After the turnpikes were made free he engaged in farming and accumulated quite a large estate.

Funeral services were conducted at the Catholic church Saturday morning by Rev. Father E. B. Rohrer with burial in St. Thomas' Cemetery. The Advocate tenders sympathy to the stricken family.

BUSINESS CHANGES HANDS

The Mt. Sterling Drug Co., owned by Mr. W. S. Lloyd and managed by Mr. A. Tabb Bassett, has been sold to Col. R. H. White and Mr. A. M. King who will get possession Christmas day.

Mr. Bassett will take charge of Mr. Lloyd's other store and Mr. Lloyd will give more of his time to his banking interests.

Messrs. White and King are both graduate pharmacists and will no doubt command a large patronage as both are well known and popular.

ROGER DRAKE'S SALE

At the sale of the personal property of Roger Q. Drake held last week there was a small crowd and prices were low. Twenty-two 500-pound steers sold at $32.50 per head; oat hay sold at $14 a ton; sow and five pigs, $35; horse, $51. Other stock was offered and taken down. Farm implements and household goods sold low.

The Advocate for printing.

TOBACCO MARKET IS BETTER

Farmers are Busy Bringing Tobacco to Market and Sales Progressing Rapidly.

The tobacco market in this city is getting better and the prices obtained are more satisfactory to the farmers who are rushing their crops to the various warehouses. The Whitehall house, which broke the State record last week again made a fine showing Saturday, obtaining for one crop of 3300 pounds on average of $14.65 and good prices for many others. We list below a few of their sales of Monday:

Kearns & Hall, 3000 pounds, average $10.86; Thomas & Wilson, 4515 pounds, average $11.48; J. M. Adamson, 2305 pounds, average $10.48; Owings & Highley, 3095 pounds, average $12.48; Owings & Henson, 2945 pounds, average $15.43; J. W. Henson, 1265 pounds, average $13.50; F. G. Clay & Foley, 4900 pounds, average $13.98; D. H. Webster, 4530 pounds, average $13.29. There was a total of 107,450 pounds sold at an average of $9.40. This is the best average obtained on a local floor this season.

The Robertson house sold 20630 pounds Saturday at an average of $9.71. There were no rejections on this floor. This house had sold up until Tuesday morning 57545 pounds at an average of $8.06. They now have a full floor for the next sale.

Large crowds visited the houses Monday to watch the sales and the rapid handling of crops and the clock work precision with which they were handled elicited much praise.

Monday's Sale at Farmers.

The market at the Farmers House Monday was the best of the season, and the sale was brisk, with bidding spirited and buyers eager to get the weed. Prices showed advance of from 1 to 3 cents, and sales were rapid. Growers well pleased with conditions and the prices here began to look like old times sure. The quality of the offerings was much better than at any time since the season opened. The house sold 75,215 pounds for a general average of $8.97 for all sold, including every grade. Among the best averages taken from books were Gay Shroat, Bath county, 2805 pounds, average $10.98; Chas. Lewis 2485 pounds, average $11.21; Bessie and Lula Bennett 1905 pounds, average $13.96; Lyons & Hays 2075 pounds, average $11.09; Lyons & Spencer 1890 pounds, average $12.39; Sam Laythrum, of Bath county, one crop average $14.10, and one crop average $12.81; Ray McKinney, crop average $12.42. There were no rejections and sale was pronounced one of the best ever held in the city. The Farmers will hold their last sale before the holidays Wednesday, and their first sale after Christmas on December 28th.

Notice!

The Burley House sold at their first sale 20,000 pounds, leaving out one frozen crop they made an average of $8.32. Every basket sold, a record not made by any house in the State this season. The house will receive tobacco every day except Christmas day. If you wish information phone the Burley night or day. Pay no attention to what outside parties may say. Our sales close Dec. 23 and open Monday, Dec. 29th.

Experienced tobacco men to sort your tobacco, which insures you the high dollar from the bottom to the top. The Whitehall.

SMALL CROWD HERE MONDAY

Many Visit Tobacco Warehouses But Merchants Enjoy Brisk Business.

Monday was county court day in this city but only a small crowd was present. Quite a number of people visited the tobacco warehouses where the sales were being held and our merchants enjoyed a nice business.

The pens were opened Monday and there were about 2000 cattle on the market. The quality was fairly good but all the stuff showed the extreme winter tuck. The best steers sold at 7 cents, but only a few bunches brought this price; the bulk of sales being at 6 to 6 1/2 cents. Yearlings at 6 cents; heifers at 5 1/2 to 6 cents; cows at 5 1/2; canners at 3 1/2 cents. Trade was rather slow but a good many cattle changed hands during the day.

SALES

Harve Trimble sold 16 1000 lb. steers to Prewitt Vanmeter, of Clark county, at 7 cents; Geo. Calvin sold a bunch of 500 lb. heifers to R. P. Taylor, of Clark county, at 6 cents; Allen McCormick sold 40 800 lb. steers to Jonas Weil, of Lexington, at 6 cents; A. J. Hughes sold 14 750 lb. steers to W. G. Taylor, of Clark county, at 7 cents; Chas. Duff sold 28 900 lb. steers to J. H. Graves, Jr., of Fayette county, at 6 1/2 cents; Jas. Hoskins sold 22 850 lb. steers to Jonas Weil, of Lexington, at 6 1/4 cents. Many other sales at about these prices. The pens were pretty well cleaned by night.

HORSES AND MULES

There seemed to be very little demand and very few sales.

WHITE PLAGUE CLAIMS VICTIM

Miss Edna Hamilton Expires After a Lingular Illness of Tuberculosis.

Tuberculosis claimed another victim in this county Saturday when Miss Edna Belle Hamilton, aged twenty-three years, died after a lingering illness of that dreaded disease.

She was a beautiful young girl, bright and popular with a large circle of friends and her death was indeed a sad one. She had been a member of the Christian church for many years. Funeral services were conducted at the family residence by Rev. Matt A. Hart, of Columbia, Mo., with interment in the Owingsville cemetery. Miss Hamilton is survived by two brothers, Thomas and Sherman Hamilton and one sister, Miss Emma Hamilton. The Advocate joins the friends of the sorrowing family in tendering sincere sympathy.

The Whitehall holds the State and county record—what we have done for others we can do for you. Bring the goods and we'll get you the price. Phone 420.

SHOOTING SCRAPE

Becoming involved in a difficulty at the stock pens Monday afternoon, Robert Hackney slashed Robert Craig across the face with a knife, slightly wounding him. Craig pulled a pistol and shot at Hackney twice but missed him both times. The police were summoned and arrested Hackney but Craig had disappeared.

Smoking and chewing tobaccos make a nice Christmas gift. You can get the best at Morris' Cafe.

GOOD WOMAN GOES TO REWARD

Succumbs to Complication of Diseases After a Long Lingular Illness.

After making a valiant fight against the ravages of disease for many weeks Mrs. Florence Elizabeth Hadden, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. William W. Eubank, in Johnson Heights Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Hadden was seventy-seven years of age and had spent practically all of her life in this county. She was the wife of Mr. Marion Hadden, who with three children, Mrs. W. W. Eubank, of this city, Mrs. Asa Dooley and Mrs. Shirley Hadden, of Clark county survive her. She is also survived by one sister, Mrs. Emma Bybee, of this city.

Mrs. Hadden was a member of the old Baptist church and was a woman of strong convictions. She possessed those lovely traits of character that made those who knew her, love her and her loss will be keenly felt by a large circle of friends.

The funeral services were held Saturday afternoon with burial in Macphelah cemetery.

The Advocate extends sympathy to the stricken family.

There will be one more sale before Christmas. Bring your tobacco to the Whitehall and you will be satisfied with the price you receive. Phone 420.

CAUGHT IN WINCHESTER

Elijah Boundurant wanted in this county for forgery was caught in Winchester Saturday and brought here and lodged in jail. It is alleged that Boundurant forged the name of E. B. Quisenberry to a check which he passed in The Walsh Co's. store.

For Rent

We have two farms for rent, one of 35 acres, the other of 90 acres, both well improved. Apply to T. F. Rogers & Son.

You haven't been to town if you haven't been in McCormick's Racket Store, opposite Oldham Bros.

BUY HER CANDY

Fancy Christmas boxes, all sizes at Ringo's Cafe.

Best line of Xmas fruit at Vandersdell's.

Santa Claus is at McCormick's Racket Store, opposite Oldham Bros.

DEATH CALLS GRAND OLD MAN

Mr. Owen Laughlin Answers Summons of His Maker Whom He So Faithfully Served.

At an early hour Tuesday morning, God in His infinite wisdom, called from his earthly labors, Mr. Owen Laughlin, one of our most widely known and universally respected citizens. He was sick but a few days and his death will come as a distinct shock to our readers.

Deceased was eighty-two years old, a devout member of St. Patrick's Catholic church and was recognized by all who knew him as a big-hearted man, of rugged honesty and moral courage. His life was clean, his heart young and his thoughts always of those he loved and for the upbuilding of the community in which he lived. For many, many years he served as a member of the Board of Trustees of the Mt. Sterling Graded School and did much for the cause of education in this city.

He is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Thomas Frazier, of Lexington, and a large number of nieces and nephews.

Burial will take place in St. Thomas' cemetery Wednesday morning.

To the grief stricken family and friends we extend our deepest sympathy.

THAW MUST GO

BACK TO NEW YORK

Harry K. Thaw lost his fight Monday in the Supreme Court of the United States against being extradited from the State of New Hampshire to the State of New York.

In a brief decision by Justice Holmes, which was the unanimous decision of the court, it was held that the celebrated prisoner should be turned over at once to the New York authorities to answer an indictment charging conspiracy to escape from Matteawan Asylum for the Criminal Insane.

If you have the goods we have the market, bring your tobacco to the Whitehall and get the high dollar. Phone 420.

You have overlooked a good thing if you don't take a look at the beautiful pictures at McCormick's Racket Store, opposite Oldham Bros.

You can buy stone jars at 5c per gallon at McCormick's Racket Store

Leave your order NOW for your Xmas turkey at Vandersdell's.

See if You Can't Find It Here

French Ivory, Manicure Sets, Brushes,
Kodaks, Kodak Albums,
Waterman Ideal Fountain Pens,
(Regular and Self Fillers)
Gillette Razors, Gem Razors,
Perfumes, Toilet Articles, Pictures,
Leather Goods,
Bill Folds, Card Cases, Music Rolls,
Shaving Sets, Box Cigars, Cigar Holders and Cases,
Pipes, Tobacco in Humidors,
Sewing Sets, Box Papers in Holiday Boxes
Writing Sets, Week-end Sets, Desk Sets,
The A. M. Davis Co. Cards and Booklets,
Anderson Hand Painted Booklets,
The Latest Novels,
Juvenile Books, Books for Boys and Girls,
Fancy Books, Dennison's Seals,
Tags, Tape and Cord,
Rook, Forty-Two and other games,
Fine Toilet Soaps, Novelties,
Vases, Urns, Ornaments,

Land & Priest
DRUGGISTS

Only a Few More Days
and the Enrollment Books of our
CHRISTMAS SAVINGS CLUB
will close

This is your last opportunity to become a member—better join at once. Tell your friends to join before it's too late.

It's the EASY and SURE way to have money for Christmas

Traders National Bank
Mt. Sterling, Ky.